University of St. Thomas

Scholarship Opportunities and Guidelines

For many students, the matter of financing their degree is the primary factor in making the decision to pursue graduate education. Our goal is to connect you with the information, resources, and support you need to make an informed decision. For questions, please contact Rosalinda Romportl, Recruitment and Student Services Coordinator, at gradtheology@stthomas.edu or (651)-962-5069.

The Archbishop John Ireland Scholarship: The College of St. Thomas and The Saint Paul Seminary were founded by the visionary Archbishop John Ireland, the third bishop and first archbishop of St. Paul. The Archbishop John Ireland Scholarship honors his commitment to Catholic education and dedicated service to God's people by offering a full-tuition scholarship to graduating seniors or recent graduates of the University of St. Thomas. This prestigious award offers up to three qualified students an outstanding opportunity to pursue full-time graduate studies at The Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity. The scholarship recipients must maintain a 3.5 GPA, continue to make satisfactory progress toward the completion of their degree, and demonstrate a commitment to service throughout their program of study. Ireland Scholars are asked to serve for the annual Ireland Lecture in addition to three additional Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity events during the academic year, each academic year.

The Master of Arts in Theology Scholarship: The Master of Arts in Theology Scholarship is awarded to up to two qualified students entering the Master of Arts in Theology (MAT) degree program. This scholarship is intended to foster our students in their vocation as theologians and their desire to serve. It covers 80 percent of tuition costs for all required courses in the student's designated degree program. Recipients must maintain a 3.5 GPA, continue to make satisfactory progress toward the completion of their degree, and maintain a commitment to service to retain the award. MAT Scholars are asked to serve at three Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity events during the academic year, each academic year.

The Saint Paul Scholarship: Open to all degree-seeking students, this scholarship provides financial support based on academic achievement or financial need. It aims to assist students as they pursue their theological formation during their time as a student at the Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity. This scholarship covers up to 70 percent of tuition costs for all required courses in the student's designated degree program. Recipients must continue to make satisfactory progress toward the completion of their degree and maintain a commitment to service to retain the award. Saint Paul Scholars are asked to participate in two community service events with the Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity during the academic year, each academic year.

The Archdiocesan Employee Scholarship: Available to full or part-time employees of parishes, schools, and other ministries of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, this scholarship covers up to 50 percent of tuition costs. Recipients are expected to make satisfactory progress toward the completion of their degree and maintain a commitment to service to retain the award. They are asked to participate in one community service event with the Saint Paul Seminary School of Divinity during the academic year, each academic year.

Graduate Student Worker: There are several opportunities each academic year for students to work as graduate student workers in the Academic Dean's Office, Ireland Library, as research assistants, and at the University at large. This is a wonderful opportunity for students to exercise their leadership abilities and contribute to their school community. Those interested in subsidizing their education through part time work should reach out to Rosalinda Romportl, Recruitment and Student Services Coordinator, at (651)-962-5069 or gradtheology@stthomas.edu.
